Fr. Ross's input for an arrival announcement:

The Anglican Church of the Holy Trinity has called Ross Guthrie as our Rector beginning the last week of September 2019. The Guthrie family is moving to North Augusta from Jackson, Tennessee where Ross served as Priest of Spiritual Formation at All Saints Anglican Church since 2015. He completed a Masters of Christian Thought at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in May 2016 and was ordained a Priest in October 2016. Prior to that, Ross was a non-denominational pastor for over sixteen years. Ross and his wife Katherine have been married for 30 years and have ten children, six who are adults and three married daughters. Karrah (17), Alaynah (14), Benjamin (10), and Lydiah (7) are still at home. Katherine has homeschooled their children through middle school. Over the last four years, she has worked as an Aquatics Group Fitness Instructor.
